The undersigned, Dan DRAGOMIRESCU, administrative director general of the Malaxa Works in Bucharest from June 1945 to 2 April 1948, confirms that:

1. Mr. Nicolae MALAXA was in close contact with the responsible representative of the Rumanian Economic Department, Jean MAURER.

In Paris in 1946 he (Mr. MALAXA) informed MAURER that he should not make me a party to their secrets since I ~~was a member of the Rumanian Economic Department~~ might be indiscreet. It was MAURER himself who informed me of that.

2. Mr. MALAXA and his collaborator FULGA, Alfred, had as their business representative in Paris Mr. MAXIMOS, now expelled from France and Switzerland. In spite of my position I never took part in the conferences.

3. The collaborators of Mr. MALAXA, despite the services which I rendered them, and Mr. MALAXA, denounced me to the American authorities in Vienna as a communist agent. They made use of a certain Nicolae DINESCO whom they presented to the American authorities as a former director of the factories, which was entirely false.
